Mary Walton, The Deming Management Method

These books are recommended for students who are deeply interested or actively pursuing employment or career advancement in a quality-related role. They are intended to complement and enhance the instructor's lessons. They are not required to earn an "A" grade in this course.

Course Description & Pre- or Co-requisites

Course presents the concepts and theories of quality management. The focus is on helping students: understand the cost of poor quality; why quality matters; how work methods and business processes impact employee job performance; anticipate obstacles to quality improvement; apply quality principles and methods at work and in their personal lives

Student Learning Outcomes

Students completing this course will:

1. Describe the critical connections between quality, organizational effectiveness, and professional advancement in today's competitive global economy.
2. Define "Quality."
3. Explain W. Edward Deming's fundamental principles of quality management.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the extent to which operational systems and processes determine quality outcomes and the need for a planned approach to design and implementation of quality improvement.
5. Apply fundamental quality principles and tools in a specific organization and in personal life.

Attendance/Tardy/Withdrawal/Drop Policies

This course is governed by the CNM Attendance policy on pg. 34 of 2007-2009 Catalog.

The instructor will not drop you. If you do not plan to complete the course, it is your responsibility to drop/withdraw from the course in order to avoid a grade of "F". Important dates, deadlines and the last day to drop this course can be found at <http://www.cnm.edu/depts/enrollment/registration/importantdatesanddeadlines.php>.

Grading

The following will be used to determine your grade in this course:

	%
Final Exam	100%
Total	100%

The following scale is used to assign course grades:

Percentile Range	Grade
91-100	A
81-90	B
71-80	C
61-70	D
Below 61	F

Note: Each student's final grade is determined solely by their score on the final exam. No other work is expected or required for submission. A final grade of "D" or "F" is not acceptable for this course if it is required for graduation or as a prerequisite for other courses. A final grade of "D" or "F" requires repeating this course.

Late/Make-up/ Policies

Students are expected to download and read weekly lectures/lessons: www.irislearning.squarespace.com/download. The final exam/correspondence problem is due by FEBRUARY 14th. Please send the completed exam/correspondence problem to the instructor via email at the end of the course. The completed exam/correspondence problem may also be sent via US mail but must be received by the specified deadline.

Course Codes & Policies

Optional Items:[These and other items may be added at your discretion]

Business Resource Centers (BRC) are available for students to work on distance learning, homework assignments, class projects, and for one-on-one assistance. A limited number of textbooks are available for student use while in the BRC. The BRCs are located as follows: Main: SB-210, Montoya: H-124. Days and times of operation may be found at <http://www.cnm.edu/depts/bit/brc/index.php>.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty hurts everyone involved. Forms of dishonesty are collaboration during in-class exams; receiving assistance from others on take-home quizzes and exams; sharing completed assignments. The Dean of Students will be contacted to determine the proper measure to be taken on a case-by-case basis.
